

MANY GO FROM HERE TO HEAR ROOSEVELT

Democratic Vice Presidential Nominee Speaks To Cheering Thousands In Blue Grass

Several score of Madison county democrats motored to Lexington Friday, and heard Franklin D. Roosevelt, democratic vice presidential nominee. Thousands from over the bluegrass region gathered at Woodland auditorium to honor the brilliant young democratic leader and hear him expose the hypocrisy of the republican leaders who are attempting to deceive the voters upon the League of Nations issue.

The League of Nations, accomplishments of the democratic administration in its seven years of power, especially with regard to the federal reserve law and the rural credits bill, were the keynotes of his speech.

Touching lightly upon the speech of Governor Edwis P. Morrow, in which he is quoted as having said American membership in the League of Nations would mean American boys putting down wars in Timbuctoo and Siam, Mr. Roosevelt declared that the Kentucky governor was either entirely ignorant of the covenant of the league or was wilfully misrepresenting the facts to Kentucky voters. He declared that the speech of the Kentucky governor was a part of the republican campaign of misrepresentation which has been going on for more than a year.

Explaining Article X, Mr. Roosevelt said that the republican statement that England has six votes to our one was "so false as to be ridiculous. Where England has six votes, which every school boy knows, who has read the covenant, in the league assembly, as the debating society in the council. Where action can be taken England has one vote as we have and our vote will count as much toward maintaining the peace of the world as the votes of any other nation."

Taking up the accomplishments of the democratic party during its administration and during three successive democratic congresses before the last one, Roosevelt declared that the "most rabid republican campaigners could not deny that more vital and construction legislation had been placed upon the statute books than has ever been enacted in a similar period in our history."

"The whole republican plan was based on the theory that special bankers were the only people fit to control our national finances. That was the principle of the Aldrich bill, which a democratic congress killed. In addition to this the Aldrich bill left many distinct loopholes for the control of money matters for political and partisan purposes. The democratic ideal was the reverse: In the passage of the federal reserve act, in Wilson's first term, twelve great reserve banks were created under the control of the government of the United States through the federal reserve board, a nonpartisan organization is Washington wholly separate from the money trust and private banking interests. The actual working out of the federal reserve system has been a complete success. It was because of this system that we were able to finance the war."

"We were able to extend credit to the nations vitally associated with us in the conduct of the war at a time when financial assistance to them was necessary for military reasons, and today ar enational finances are truly in the hands of the people and not any selfish groups of capitalists. "I charge that it is a part of the plan of those special interests who are behind the candidacy of Senator Harding to revise the federal reserve act in case of his election with a republican congress in such a way as to restore the principles of the Aldrich banking law. I charge that they seek to take away the powers of the federal reserve board and to transfer those powers into the hands of what they call 'practical' bankers in the half dozen important financial centers of the country. "It is unnecessary to point out what would be the effect on the farmer, on the small merchant, on the home builder, and, in fact, indirectly on the life of every citizen. The country had hopes that it had got away from that kind of government. It is the kind of sound government for which republicans are asking a return at the present time."

Appeals To Women
Mr. Roosevelt made a strong appeal for the women to vote the democratic ticket because of the League of Nations, "the great moral issue of the campaign."

"Voting is not only a privilege but a duty," Mr. Roosevelt declared. "And a great danger exists if the women vote along partisan lines."

Urging that women voters study the platforms of both parties, Roosevelt said his only fear was that the women of the country, particularly those of the bluegrass and southland, would not take advantage of the opportunity afforded them.

Roosevelt came into Kentucky on the C. & O. from the east. He spoke at Mt. Sterling and Winchester before reaching Lexington. At Lexington he was introduced by W. Rogers Clay, democratic nominee for judge, of the court of appeals in this district. Mr. Roosevelt spoke to a monster meeting at Louisville Friday night.

FOUR PRISONERS ESCAPE FROM PEN

(By Associated Press)

Frankfort, Ky., Oct. 2.—Four prisoners escaped from the penitentiary here this morning after the breakfast hour by scaling the stockade wall. Irvine Anderson, sentenced for life for killing Police Sergeant Thomas Fitzgibbons in Louisville in 1918, and John "Brownie" Weisman, serving 14 years for a Louisville day-light hold up this summer, was captured along the railroad track an hour later, but Charles F. Smith, sentenced to life for the killing of a railroad detective at Ashland, and Grover Thompson, in for 14 years after a Louisville restaurant holdup, are still at large this afternoon. Guard J. Penn, who it was said failed to shoot when he saw the men going over the wall, was immediately suspended.

500 DEMOCRATIC SPEAKERS WILL AID

New York, Oct. 2.—The Democratic National Headquarters today announced that Wm. G. McAdoo would begin a speaking tour on the Pacific Coast on October 13. Senator Pat Harrison, chairman of the Democratic Speakers' Bureau, declared that 500 speakers would begin campaigning for the Democratic national ticket in October, 400 each to speak in Indiana and Ohio. The total number will be increased, Harrison said, until the election, adding that October 16 and 23 had been set aside as "Democratic Speakers Day," throughout the United States. The Democratic county chairmen from coast to coast are urged to call for volunteer speakers to deliver speeches in their territories, on those dates.

LOTS OF SPEAKING HERE MONDAY

The court house will probably be pretty well filled with people Monday, for both the republicans and democrats have speakers here that afternoon. The republicans will have the county court room below and the democrats the circuit court room upstairs.

For the latter, Hon. W. W. Davies and Mrs. John L. Woodbury, of Louisville, will speak, while Congressman King Swope and Mrs. John W. Langley will speak to the republicans.

Mr. Davies is one of the best known attorneys of Louisville and is making some splendid speeches for the Democratic ticket. He is the man who "ate up" Judge Kerr of Lexington, in their joint debate on the League of Nations at Williamstown a few weeks ago.

The democratic speaking begins at 1:30 o'clock. The Daily Register has not been advised what hour the republicans begin.

FREEMAN REALTY CO. HOLD SPLENDID SALE

The Freeman Realty Company conducted a splendid sale for Mrs. W. H. West, of her nice farm near Speedwell on Friday. The farm was knocked off to J. C. Hendren, of this county, at his bid of $210.50 an acre. There are 103 acres in the farm, which is located on the Speedwell pike, 10 miles from Richmond. During the illness of L. W. Dunbar of the Freeman Realty Company, the sales are being handled by F. P. Caldwell, who is pleasing all his customers in every way.

RICE WOODS SELLS FARM AT $300

R. G. Woods, of Paint Lick, sold the fine farm of W. C. West to Noble Ledford, of Paint Lick, this week, at the handsome figure of $300 an acre. This farm is known as part of the John Hise farm and lies about two miles south of Richmond. It contains 77 acres, and is said to be all splendid dirt. Mr. Woods is handling a lot of splendid farm sales in his section, and getting the big money for them. He has sold over a quarter of a million dollars in farms to September 1st and indications are that he will double that within the next couple of weeks.

THRONGS GREET COX IN THE WEST

Is Told By Backers, Democrats Will Carry Oklahoma—Treaty Delay Hampers Producers

Tulsa, Okla., Oct. 2.—When Gov. James M. Cox, of Ohio, left Monday night on his swing homeward toward Ohio, he took with him assurances from state party heads that Oklahoma not only would deliver her electoral vote to him by a majority ranging from 35,000 to 50,000, but that she would also elect Congressman Scott Ferris to the United States Senate and return a solid congressional delegation, gaining two seats over the last election.

Huge crowds met Gov. Cox everywhere he halted. At Enid before he had breakfast; at Kingfisher; at El Reno, where 25,000 persons from Oklahoma, New Mexico and even Texas had gathered; at Oklahoma City, where he divided honors with the attractions of the State Fair; at Chandler; at Bristow; and at Sapulpa—and finally here, where he arrived worn and weary, but exultant in the thought that he had turned the flank of the republican national committee, backed, as democratic leader here charged, by a huge campaign fund.

Speaking at the fair grounds at Oklahoma City, Gov. Cox discussed the adverse economic effects of the world war.

The Governor used them in an effort to drive home the "necessity for a world agreement to restore debilitated exchange." Upon this point he said:

"We blamed, and justly, trading profiteers who made private fortunes out of public disaster. What shall we say of those political profiteers who are striving to gratify personal revenge and win partisan advantage at the expense of human sufferings?"

"By refusing to ratify the treaty of peace and join the League of Nations they have thrown our times out of joint. When we should be enjoying a period of unprecedented prosperity at the same time that we are helping to remake a broken world, we have been forced to sit idly by while all Europe crumbles in chaos."

"And as for ourselves we are made to suffer, as producers of raw materials, the losses incident to tumbling prices."

"You cotton growers in Oklahoma know what I mean," the president of your State Board of Agriculture estimates that a quarter of a million bales of low-grade cotton will not be picked because the price has fallen to $35 and it costs $50 to put a bale of cotton on the market."

"You wheat growers also know what I am talking about. The price of wheat already has fallen below the price formerly fixed by the government without a parallel decline in the cost of bread to the consumer, and the producer stands to lose on his crop."

"I am a farmer and know something about the cost of producing; nor can I agree with the statement of Senator Harding in the Congressional Record, page 5,269, July 19, 1917, and again on July 21, as recorded on page 5,350, of the Record, when he said that wheat could be grown profitably for $1 a bushel."

"The depression in the demand for raw commodities, of course, is due to the instability of foreign exchange, and to the inability of Europe to obtain necessary credit, for the reason that financial security rests on social security, denied to the remainder of the world by our refusal to co-operate in the establishment and maintenance of order."

Large manipulators of raw materials in the United States, he said, were taking an unfair advantage of closed foreign markets by "cheating the producer on one hand with low prices and exploiting the consumer on the other hand with high prices."

While the high cost of living was an issue in the campaign, he said, "the League is the paramount issue, because there can be no hope for permanent prosperity and peace until it is accepted."

Gov. Cox has essayed a counter attack upon the republican drive now centering upon Article X of the league covenant.

Being asked where he stood as to belief in it, he said:

"In making my answer I should like to ask a question also. Do you believe, sir, in the Ten Commandments? I do not mean to insult your intelligence or cast the least reflection upon your integrity."

"But I ask seriously do you believe in the Ten Commandments, and are you in favor of the Eighth Commandment, without reservations? Well, Article 8 of the Tenth Commandment is identical with the same, in principle, as Article 10 of the league covenant—'Thou shalt not steal.'"

"This commandment, first written on tablets of stone on Mt. Sinai, since has been written not only in the code of personal morals, but in the public law of every land. What is more, it is backed up by courts and police power and common conscience."

"The League would extend the Eighth Commandment to cover international relations by making territorial burglary not only immoral, but illegal."

COLLINS FARM RENTS FOR $3,300

The Dr. P. P. Collins farm of 244 acres was rented at public auction Saturday morning to Messrs. May Collins and Jerry Chambers, who will each handle a part of the fine farm. The rental for the year 1921 will be $3,300. Dr. Collins came here from Denver, Colo., for the renting of his place. Col. Jesse Cobb cried the auction and everyone was well pleased. The farm lies on Otter Creek about two and a half miles from Richmond.

STEER SHIPMENT

T. C. McCown and Waller Chenault together with T. D. Chenault, who sold their cattle some time ago to Monte Fox and Company, representing Armour & Company, have sent away two shipments of the stock, said to be about the finest ever leaving the county. The steers averaged 1,440 pounds and were in prime condition. The first shipment was of 60 and the last of 70 steers.

There have been a number of smaller shipments from Madison county recently and the fall market prices are generally better than usual. This, it is said, is owing to the fact that many of the shipments out of this county represent some of the finest beef cattle to be found on the American market today.

HELP! NORMAL NEEDS ROOMS

Hon. J. A. Sullivan, Resident Regent, E. K. S. N.

Dear Sir:

I take pleasure in reporting to you the condition of Eastern at the close of the organization Saturday, September 25.

Attendance:
Normal School proper 239 students
Model High School 61 students
Training School (Model) 128 students
Model Rural School 50 students
Correspondence Students 60 students

538 students
The attendance in the Normal School is about 55 per cent larger than for the same time last year. The attendance in the Model High is perfect, since it is a limited school. The attendance in the other schools also is perfect since they are limited to ideal numbers. No more students can be admitted to the model schools in any grades unless some student gives up his place. We have quite a waiting list at this time. The correspondence department is growing rapidly. In this department we are offering high school and college courses by mail.

The women's dormitory, Sullivan Hall, has room for possibly twenty more women; and the men's dormitory is nearly full. If the school increases as usual during the first term our dormitory room will be filled before Thanksgiving—a thing that has never happened before. The question now worrying me is: What are we going to do at the beginning of the Third term when the big attendance begins? There are good grounds for believing that at least 500 new students will want to enter. True is it that we have two dormitories going up which will accommodate 112 women and 65 men. Even when finished they will not approximate our needs. From present indications the future attendance at Eastern will be measured by the accommodations furnished by the State and by Richmond. It is clearly to the interest of Richmond that we have a large student body. What are we going to do about it? Very truly yours,

T. J. COATES, President.

To the Public:

The foregoing letter from T. J. Coates, President of our Normal, is self-explanatory. His concluding question is quite important. I am unable to answer it and pass it to the good people of Richmond for answer. It is manifest that in the near future our dormitories will be full and the new ones are not to be finished until in March, 1921.

I again invite and urge the people to assist the Normal all they can by furnishing rooms at reasonable prices and report to F. C. Gentry what they can do as soon as possible. About 100 male students who were wounded in our late war with Germany and who are allowed $80.00 per month by the United States to go to school on, made application to come to our Normal, but our people did not respond as quickly as the United States required, and hence they were sent to places which had responded more promptly. If they had come here they would have spent in this community about $8,000 per month for one year among the people. I thus again express the hope that the Normal be furnished all requested information on the rooming question promptly and that the people of Richmond consider the importance to them as a business proposition the providing of rooms for as many students as they possibly can. Solely as a business matter this is important to housekeepers, merchants and the people. Respectfully,

J. A. SULLIVAN, Local Regent.

FROST WARNING BRINGS WORK RUSH

Outstanding Tobacco Hurried To Sheds In Madison By Wary Producers—Little Damage

There was the greatest activity of the season among tobacco growers of Madison county Friday as a result of the warning of the cold wave and frost prediction, and every available man was busily engaged in the tobacco fields. It is estimated that the quantity of tobacco moved Friday was the greatest of any one day in the history of the county. Producers state they were fearful of a frost at a late hour Thursday and the work was well under way when the warning reached them through these columns and then every procurable hand was diligently at work soon after. Wages ranged from $4 to 8 for the day, it is said, while in other localities as high as 12 was paid by some who had a large production in the field and were desirous of getting it under roof.

The frost, according to those from various parts of the county, wrought no great damage. In some localities, while it was very evident, farmers state it was "heavy in quality," but not the freezing variety. They describe it as being moist, but of the wet and cold instead of the white and freezing kind that kills vegetation. It is conceded that little, if any, of the tobacco suffered as a result, although those who worked to get their production under cover are better pleased with the result. Some feared their tobacco would freeze in the sheds, but the frost is said to have been too wet and the freezing qualities not sufficient to do any harm. Light frost was reported in various parts of the city and many a housewife covered plants of tender nature, which were unharmed.

FORMER LIGHT CHAMPION IS SOUGHT IN BALL CASE

(By Associated Press)

New York, Oct. 2.—District Attorney Lewis announced today an investigation by his office had failed to disclose any plan to "fix" the 1920 world's series, "not even a simple suspicion," he said. Meanwhile, detectives are searching for Abe Attell, former featherweight champion, in connection with the world's series.

District Attorney announced that Attell would be forcibly brought before him for questioning if Attell could be found. Attell's name was connected with rumors in the 1919 series, alleged to have been "fixed" by a syndicate of gamblers.

WAR MOTHERS BACK LEAGUE OF NATIONS

Louisville, Ky., Oct. 2.—The National Board of American War Mothers strongly endorsed the League of Nations at their convention being held here at the Seelbach Hotel. The resolution adopted by the National Board to be submitted to the state organizations for ratification is—

"Whereas, millions of boys were called to the service of their country to fight a war to stop war; therefore, be it resolved that the National Board of American War Mothers goes on record strongly endorsing the League of Nations, the one thing that stands for world peace."

Mrs. James Digney, vice president of the American War Mothers, called on Mrs. Samuel M. Wilson, Democratic women's chairman, at her headquarters here, and reported that North Dakota would certainly go democratic, because of the fact that the non-partisan league had grabbed the republican party in her state.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving remembrance of Elliott Shifflett, who passed into the Great Beyond August 26, 1920.

Passing away, passing away,
The dear one we love, they are Passing away;

I have seen them go down to the Cold silent tide,
While the pale, solemn boatsman
Kept close to their side.
I have caught the dull dip of his dread, muffled oar,
As he bore them away to that echo-less shore.

My heart crushed out in its desolate pain,
But they will never return to bless me again.

Passing away, passing away,
Yet I know that Land where there is no decay;

There the balmy airs, filled with the richest perfume
Of fair fragrant flowers, all fadeless in bloom.

Where the soul never grieves as it does here below
O'er fair vanished dreams; o'er hope's beautiful glow,
Where linked forever is Love's golden chain,
And parting words chill us, oh, never again.

A DEAR FRIEND.

Beginning Monday, October 4th to 9th

Eddie Drury and Frank Stanhope

Harmony Singers--and Believe Us, These Boys Can Sing

Aside from the high class moving picture programs always presented at the local theatres, the management in securing the service of these extra added attractions which will appear next week at the popular play-houses, adheres to its policy of offering only the best to be obtained in the way of entertainment.

"Eddie" Drury and Frank Stanhope are coming here direct from the Ben Ali Theatre at Lexington and will need no introduction to the theatre-going public as their work on the stage is well known and their friends are many. Both Drury and Stanhope were members of the "Big Four" quartet which successfully appeared in nearly every Keith theatre in the United States and was considered one of the best singing acts in vaudeville. "Eddie Drury" was was pitcher for the Cincinnati Reds baseball club in the National League in 1907.

Frank Stanhope was a ballad singer in the famous Al. G. Fields minstrels, with whom he was connected for several years.

As a singing team Eddie Drury and Frank Stanhope have successfully filled engagements in theatres and for other occasions during the past year and the appreciation of their singing, in repeated encores at the Ben Ali theatre in Lexington, where they have just finished filling a six-weeks' engagement, is only a repetition of the success they meet wherever they go. These boys pleased capacity audiences while in Lexington and undoubtedly established themselves as favorites with the Lexington public. As the reputation of these singers is so widely known, there is no doubt but they will be met with much success while filling their engagement here in Richmond next week. Don't fail to hear them next Monday matinee and night. They're bound to please.

OF INTEREST TO WOMEN

This is a Short Letter, but it Brings a Message of Importance to every Woman.

Woodford, Vt.—"I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Live Pills before my child was born and it did wonderful work for me. My baby weighed eight and one-half pounds when born and I did not suffer many pains. You can publish this letter if you wish for I would not be without your medicine before child birth."

—Mrs. JOHN LIBSINI, Woodford, Vt.

The reason why Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is so successful in overcoming woman's ills is because it contains the tonic, strengthening properties of good old-fashioned roots and herbs, which act on the female organism. Women from all parts of the country are continually testifying to its strengthening, curative influence, and as it contains no narcotics or harmful drugs it is a safe medicine for women.

If you want special advice write Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidentially) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read, and answered by women only.

The Product of Experience

DEAR SIR—What would this city do without telephones today?

Yet there was a time when people thought they were getting along fairly well without the telephone!

And you may think you are getting along fairly well without automobile trucks in your business.

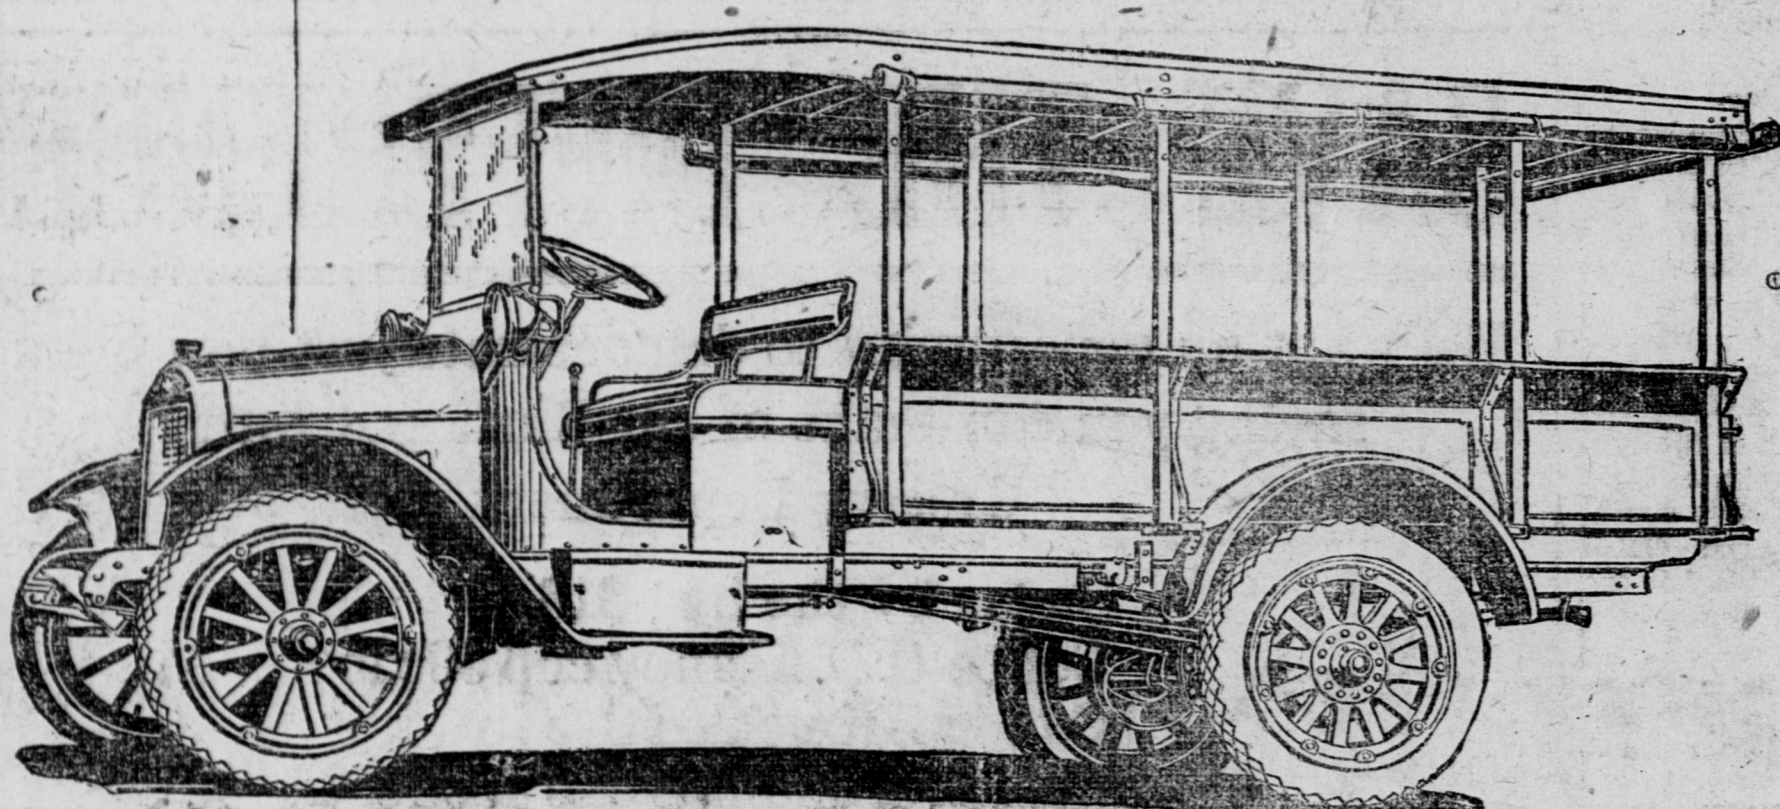

Yet the automobile truck has already been proven indispensable to profitable business and progress.

You should use a Chevrolet One Ton Truck in your business. It belongs with all the other progressive methods and systems you use.

A Chevrolet establishes and maintains quick, economical and convenient service. You never will realize how much you need one until it begins to make money for you—then you wonder why you did not see its usefulness before. Each day you are without one you deprive yourself of a most important recognized asset. The lack of it is a handicap. The possession of it marks you as thoroughly alive and up to date in the eyes of other business men as well as your customers.

The Chevrolet One Ton Truck by its ability and economy is especially suited to your needs. May we have an opportunity of explaining Chevrolet Service more in detail? Yours very truly,

UNION CITY'S NEW IMPROVEMENT CLUB

Progressive Movement Being Taken Up By Students and Others

There are many things doing at Union City since the beginning of busily engaged in various enterprises, as well as the citizens of the town, who are launching a number of movements looking towards the betterment and general improvement of the place. Among these is the Union City Improvement League, which will be organized in the very near future, according to present plans. There was a meeting recently attended by an enthusiastic number who pledged their assistance in various ways in carrying out the plans as promulgated by the leaders.

A greater Union City High school is one of the movements contemplated. There are events which have taken place and others planned that will go far towards the realization of a fund to be used for general purposes. The recent meeting, which was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Phelps, was an enthusiastic one. There will be a meeting at the school building Friday, October 1, at which this organization will be perfected and officers elected. Mr. Marcus C. Redwine, of Winchester, will be the chief speaker.

The extensive plans have imbued older residents with the improvement idea and it is expected there will be participation upon the part of many not school students. Those at the head of the movement are enthused over the prospects and believe big things will be done with the efforts of the many students, together with the faculty and their friends. Those at the head of the movement, and there seems to be concerted action, will not divulge the plans of the organization at this time, awaiting the election of officers.

Monument to War Mothers will be erected in Indianapolis according to decision made at Louisville convention.

Governor Morrow has taken an active part in the investigation of the blowing up of the hotel at Garrett recently.

SECOND TOLL LINE HERE TO WINCHESTER

Business of the Two Cities Causes Company to Provide Further Service—Work In City

There is a new copper long distance telephone line being strung Winchester, making the second line between the two cities, and virtually doubling the service. The business between Richmond and Winchester over the telephone line has become such as to cause the new addition, and it is an important one.

There has been a steady increase in business, it is said, for some time, and it is with the intention of giving the best service possible and to avoid delays, and perhaps a crippled service in case of storm, that the new line is being constructed. The workmen started at Winchester and have reached the Madison county line. While it will be some time before the line is open for service, it will admit of many delays being eliminated when completed, and will be appreciated by the numerous patrons.

The Cumberland Telephone and Telegraph company, which has been taking time by the forelock since the street paving work began, is still busy about the city, a big crew of workmen being busily engaged in placing poles and adding new equipment to the city service. This has been given extensive attention during the past few months. The work was really started last spring during the sleet storms and has not yet been finished. Miles of new wire have been strung and lines have been changed, owing to the various changes in the county roads, and the work has been equally extensive and constant in the country as in the city. There are still a few of the large poles to be placed, but this will be finished before the paving is completed, thus installing poles, etc., more securely. The company as yet has not estimated the cost of the sleet storm of last spring. However, it has compelled the company to have a number of crews steadily at work for a period of more than six months. The city improvement work will not be stopped, it is stated, until everything is put in good shape for the winter.

DURABILITY

"Made to Endure and Make Starting Sure"

The rugged construction of the Cooper Battery has given it those long enduring qualities which are so necessary to the Storage Battery, if the service it renders is to be efficient and of long duration. Two distinctive features that give the Cooper Battery durability are the heavily pasted plates, with an active material of special composition, and the Port Orford Cedar Separator.

The Plate

What the motor is to the Automobile, the plate is to the battery--its heart. Long life and efficient service depend on a greater degree upon the plate than any other part of the battery. Cooper engineers have designed the plate of this battery--heavily pasted with an active material of special composition--to meet the unusual requirements of the electrical system of your car. This plate is your assurance of electrical energy that is ever ready, efficient and longer lasting.

The Port Orford Separator

The purpose of the separator of a battery is to act as an insulator between the plates. The Port Orford Cedar Separator used in the Cooper Battery offers greater resistance to the action of the electrolyte and the natural wear and tear due to friction between the plates, which is caused by the continuous jarring and vibrating of the automobile. Our special process for treating Port Orford Cedar Separator eliminates all injurious substances and still retains the natural texture and firmness of the wood.

Before you buy your next battery, stop at our Service Station and let us show you how the Cooper Battery is constructed, and explain the guarantee under which it is sold.

NEGRO CANDIDATE FOR SCHOOL BOARD

Louisville, Ky., Oct. 2--Encouraged by Senator Warren G. Harding's promise that the negro race should have a fuller measure of participation in public affairs, negroes of Louisville held a rally this week to push the candidacy of Richard Lovett, a young negro, for the Board of Education, and to unify opposition to the million dollar school bond issue here.

The "Kentucky Reporter," a negro newspaper, in giving an account of this meeting described the candidate "Mr. Lovett," a young man of sterling qualities. He is a race man through and through, and never admits for moment any inferiority or any inequality of man on account of color or race. He has always taken an active part in organizations and movements whose purpose it is to better conditions.

Wm. Warley, the young negro who ran for the legislature in Louisville, but was counted out by a scant margin in the republican primary; J. Willis Cole and R. T. Berry, negro newspaper men, all declared in speeches that the colored people do not share in party or governmental affairs in any where near their voting strength. They urged opposition to the bond issue for Louisville schools on the ground that it represented taxation without representation. A successful fight on the bonds they stated, would secure a large measure of recognition from the powers that be, not only in politics but in education and in all matters affecting the white people.

The meeting was regarded as marking the beginning of a movement on the part of the colored race in Louisville to secure for themselves more recognition in local affairs. It is estimated that there are 25,000 negro voters in Louisville, which means that the Democrats need a two to one advantage on the white vote in order to run the republicans an even race in this district.

MOTHER GAVE IT

Virginia Lady Suffered With Aches and Pains Until Mother Began Giving Her Cardui.

Dublin, Va.--Miss Mary Alice Hughett residing on Route 2, near here, recently told a visitor of her interesting experience with Cardui. Miss Hughett said: "I had been suffering for some time with painful... I was pale, didn't feel like going. Would just drag around, and couldn't rest to do any good. I would suffer once a month with my back, sides and head. My limbs would ache and I didn't know what to do, but I knew I must do something, for I didn't get well by letting it run on."

"My mother is a believer in Cardui, for she saw what it did for others as well as herself, so she began giving it to me. "It wasn't long before I saw a change. It was just what I needed. It regulated me. I began to eat and sleep, and the pain stopped. Cardui is without doubt the best female tonic made, and I am glad I can recommend it to others."

If suffering with symptoms such as Miss Hughett mentions, or other ailments peculiar to women, why not begin Cardui at once? Its merit is well established by successful use for more than 40 years.

DR. J. G. BOSLEY IS MEDICAL EXAMINER

Dr. J. G. Bosley, of Richmond, has been appointed medical examiner for the U. S. Hospital unit here, succeeding Dr. J. H. Jeffries, who has been promoted and who will be transferred about the first of the week; to Lexington. Dr. Bosley has been affiliated with government work heretofore and his years of experience will admit if his assuming the office with the best of recommendations both as to point of service and popularity.

This change will not cause any cessation of work in this city, and the extensive task of effecting the re-examination of soldiers will continue as before. The work has not yet reached a stage where it could be termed extensive, however, it is expected to within a short time. This district represents several of the most important and extensive counties in the state and many soldiers will come to the city. After the re-examination, the readjustment of compensation will take place. This is one of the reasons for the special examination called for. It is reported there are many who are not receiving a sufficient compensation. Some have reported their condition serious as a result. It is to treat all in a just manner and to see that none suffer that this physical examination is to be made.

Canine Booster For Cox

There is one canine booster for Governor Cox, Democratic presidential candidate. His name is "Abe," said to be very appropriate the bull terrier owned by H. Clay Stone. When asked his favorite candidate for the presidency, the dog will emit three successive barks, as if spelling out the name of the Ohio Governor. When asked to spell the name, three more barks will be given, no more and no less.

NOW THE N!

Everybody wants a nice little farm on a good pike near Richmond.

Why?

Because Richmond is rapidly reaching the point where it is recognized as the best city in the Blue Grass.

Why Do I Say That?

Because it is second to none in educational facilities.

Because its churches are the very best.

Because business is excellent. The courts have forgotten what an assignment is. Everybody who does anything can make money.

Health conditions are fine, and those asphalt streets—oh, my—how an automobile glides over them.

But what I started to say is that I am going to offer for sale to the highest bidder one hundred and fifteen acres of land one mile of the city limits on the Dixie Highway—

John H. Gibson Farm

It will be sold in four tracts of from 15 to 54 acres on October 14, 1920

at 10 o'clock a. m., on the premises.

These tracts will be surveyed and platted before the sale.

Two of the tracts are well improved and the other two have no improvements.

All the land is as fine as a crow ever flew over and is well watered and in excellent condition to raise fine crops.

Look out for further advertisements. Wait for this sale.
